Re: United States Patent for Stackable Winding Core and Method of Making Same
Application No. 10/796,478; Filed March 9, 2004
Patent No. 7,121,500; Issued October 17, 2006
Our File 031599/270573

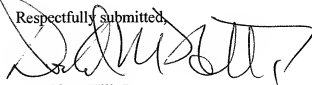

Sir:

It is respectfully requested that a Certificate of Correction be issued for the above-identified patent in accordance with 37 C.F.R. §1.323. This request is made in order to correct a mistake incurred by Applicant.

As supporting evidence for the entry of the Certificate of Correction, Applicant points your attention to claim 4 in the original application which is now claim 1 in the issued patent. The original claim 4 reads, "The stackable winding core of claim 2." The first Amendment filed June 9, 2006, amended claim 4 to make it an independent claim, but still reads, "stackable winding core." Then when Applicant filed the Amendment After Final on July 28, 2006, the word "core" was inadvertently deleted in the first line after "stackable winding," and is not accounted for by a deletion of the word core.

The mistake appearing in the patent is set forth on the Certificate of Correction e-filed herewith. The $100.00 fee was paid during e-filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald M. Hill, Jr.
